Dear Ronald MacDonald

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department) has received your request for data of 24 January 2023. Your reference number for this request is DA24/01/00041.

The Department has interpreted your request as follows:

- Number of General Migration (subclasses 189, 190 and 491) and Employer Sponsor Migration (subclasses 186, 187 and 482) visa applications lodged, granted, refused and on hand from 2013 to 2023 (inclusive), by year, for applicants with British nationality or applying from the UK, for Medical Practitioner ANZSCO 253.

If we have misinterpreted your request, please let us know by emailing foi@homeaffairs.gov.au quoting the above reference number so we can reassess your request.

Charge for access

The Department has calculated that a charge of $180.00 is required for your request.

Next Steps

You can now choose to:

- pay the attached invoice for your request to proceed;
- email foi@homeaffairs.gov.au to tell us if your request has been incorrectly interpreted; or
- email foi@homeaffairs.gov.au to tell us if you wish to withdraw your request.

Your request will not be processed until you take one of these actions.

Please note: if you do not respond by 07 February 2024 your request will be deemed to be withdrawn.

Financial hardship

If you believe that paying the charge for access would result in financial hardship to you, you can request a waiver or reduction of the charge. Please set out the reasons you believe that you would experience financial hardship and provide supporting evidence.

An example of financial hardship would be when payment of the charge would leave you unable to provide food, accommodation, clothing, medical treatment, education or other necessities for yourself or your family, or other people for whom you are responsible.

Your request for a waiver or reduction of charge will be considered, and a response sent to you within 30 business days. Further information on charges is available on our webpage: Data requests \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)

Release of requested information

We will try to finalise your request within 30 business days of receiving your payment. If we need to contact you regarding the clarity or size of your request, we will contact you in writing.

In some circumstances, release of data may be prohibited by legislation such as the Privacy Act 1988, Australian Border Force Act 2015 and Migration Act 1958. If we cannot release the requested data due to restrictions under legislation, we will notify you in writing. If we cannot provide any data at all the Department will refund the amount you have paid.

If you have any feedback about our handling of your data request, please email foi@homeaffairs.gov.au

Thank you for your data request. I look forward to your response.
